NEWS OF PENDLETON

New Druggist Arrives.
 H. C. Church, a Portland druggist, has arrived to take a position in the Red Cross Drug Store.

Is Appointed Guardian.
 Rancee L. Keator was today appointed guardian ad litem of Asyleen Brown, minor heir of the late C. H. Brown.

Game Warden Moves Office.
 George Tonkin, deputy game warden, today moved his office from the La Dow store to the court house. He will be in the same office as the county water master.

Bobo in Realty Business.
 S. Norton Bobo, former editor of the Stanfield Standard and well known locally, now has a position with the F. N. Clark & Co. realty firm of Portland, according to a letter received by a friend.

Decree of Divorce.
 A decree of divorce was handed down this morning by Judge Phelps in the case of Anna B. Weaver vs.
 Joseph Weaver. The plaintiff was given the decree and the custody of three minor children.

To Attend Veterans' Banquet.
 S. C. Jackson of this city left on the midnight train for Portland where this evening he will attend the annual banquet of Scout Young Camp, Spanish War Veterans. The ex-soldiers, while meeting for a social time will discuss the Mexican situation.

Begin on P. H. S. Lawn.
 Jim Hutchinson, formerly in charge of Round-up Park, began his work this morning putting in water pipe in the grounds preparatory to seeding the lawn. The landscape gardener at the Eastern Oregon State Hospital will assist in laying out the grounds.

Campaigned in West End.
 Osmer E. Smith, candidate for the republican nomination for district attorney, has returned from two days of campaigning in Hermiston, Stanfield and Echo. In company with S.
 A. Newberry, S. H. Forshaw and Lyman G. Rice he attended the Masonic meeting in Hermiston Tuesday night.

Local Car Attracts Attention.
 Yesterday was the first day of the auto show in Walla Walla and Carl Peringer of this city drove over in his beautiful new Mercer. His car proved to be the most attractive in Walla Walla and everywhere was the center of attention. Local people who saw the auto parade in Walla Walla declare it was a very fine one.

Keator Files for Office.
 Deputy District Attorney R. I.
 Keator today forwarded his formal declaration of candidacy for the republican nomination for district attorney to the secretary of state. Opposite his name on the ballot he will have printed, "Pledged to economical and impartial enforcement of the law."

Beam Brothers Back.
 Tracy and Chester Beam, formerly of this city, have returned to Pendleton, called by the death of their father, A. Beam. The former has been in Nevada and the latter in San Francisco. Chester just recently left the hospital where he was confined by an injury sustained in an automobile accident.

Wants Bout Here.
 Fighting Billy Murray the California middleweight now in Portland, has written the East Oregonian through the medium of the sporting editor of the Portland Oregonian, asking for a bout in this city. The announcement of Mayor Best last night, however, will probably preclude the staging of further boxing bouts.

Ex-Deputy Gets Small Fine.
 Hush Ramsey of Ukiah, former deputy game warden who was arrested recently on a charge of having deer meat in his possession, pleaded guilty this morning in the Pilot Rock justice court and was fined $25 and costs the minimum penalty. The costs am-mounted to $1.50. Deputy Warden Tonkin was present when Ramsey pleaded.

Myrick Estate Probated.
 Upon petition of James S. Myrick of Athena, Pay La Grow was this morning appointed administrator of the estate of Mrs. Eliza Myrick who died on March 16. The estate consists of three lots in Athena and personal property valued approximately at $11-000. The heirs are J. S. Myrick, husband of the deceased, and four children, Dora, Pauline, Jesse and George Myrick.

Captain Pope to Front.
 Captain Francis Pope of the United States army, a brother-in-law of Ne-smith Ankeny of this city and known to many Pendletonians has received orders to leave at once for the Mexican border to take part in the hostilities against Villa, according to word received here. Captain Pope was formerly stationed at Fort Walla Walla and since his return from Paris where he was a military attaché, has been at the Presidio in San Francisco.

Hille Club to Find Range.
 At the meeting in the city hall last evening for the organization of a rifle club to affiliate with the national association, a committee consisting of Dr. F. L. Ingram and Lee D. Drake was appointed to look for a suitable range. Another meeting will be called early next week at which time the committee will report and the formal organization of the club be perfected. Already forty-nine men have signed up for the club and more are expected to join. The government furnishes one gun for every five members and also a certain amount of ammunition.

Judgment Rendered.
 A judgment of $63.45 and interest has been handed down in the circuit court in favor of the plaintiff in the case of May Hardware Co. vs. F. C.
 Hardy.

For Public Service Post.
 Ed Wright, county clerk of Union county and candidate for the republican nomination for membership on the public service commission, is here today in behalf of his campaign.
 There are six men in the race for the republican nomination, and Mr.
 Wright believes he has a good opportunity to land the nomination.

Find Guns on Japs.
 Deputy Game Warden George Tonkin and Special Deputy Warden Jack Vincent of Athena yesterday searched 12 outfit cars in this city and 18 at Echo for firearms belonging to un-naturalized foreigners who have no permits. They found three guns and two revolvers, confiscating all. Two of the guns were found on Japs. All of the Greek laborers for the O.-W. had been warned but the Japs had not been. In searching the cars, the wardens found that the Japs had provided well against the prohibition year, nearly every suit case containing liquor. In one they found three bottles of rock and rye and two quarts of whiskey.

Lad, 9, Shoots Playmate.
 NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., March 24.—Horace Porter, 9 years old, in the absence of his parents, obtained a small rifle and shot his playmate, Marshall Remelin, aged 10, through the lungs.

The victim, son of Mr. and Mrs. M.
 C. Remelin, is in the hospital and his recovery is doubtful.

J. L. Flanagan, representing the Great Western Smelting & Refining Co., is here from Seattle.

The president of the Japanese Citizens' Association of Hawaii set a good example to other hypenated Americans in these words in a recent address to his associates. "You who were born in Hawaii are not the sons of the emperor (of Japan). If trouble should come with Japan, you must remember that you are the sons of the president, not of the emperor. Aim to work for the best examples of citizenship and then aim to work for peace."

NO MILITIA.

surrounded Villa or were about to engage him.

"I don't believe a battle is in progress," Bell said. Garcia expected a fight to begin at daybreak. He had information that Carranzistas had defeated the Villistas and that Villa was now surrounded. Gavira awaited confirmation of last night's announcement that Bertani and Americans had enveloped Villa.

Punston announced that the wireless between Columbus and the American expedition had been abandoned. Two messages that arrived were so garbled that a repetition was demanded. A telegraph wire will be working shortly.
